

ELTON FURZE

Terms & Conditions for “Trial Membership” at Elton Golf Club

- The cost of the Trial Membership is £299.
- Trial Membership is for a period of four consecutive months.
- Trial Members shall have full golfing rights, including the right to introduce a maximum of 3 guests per visit at the appropriate member’s guest rate.
- A trial member may gain and hold an official CONGU Handicap at Elton Furze, subject to paying the appropriate affiliation fee.
- A Trial member has the opportunity to play in all Club competitions, however not entitled to win any major competitions.
- All Trial members must book a tee time by calling the pro shop on 01832 280614.
- Prior to playing each round of golf a trial member is required to sign in and show their membership card to a member of staff in the pro shop before commencing play.
- During the Trial period they will have full rights in the Clubhouse, bar and restaurant facilities. With a 10% discount on beverages when using their membership card.
- Prior to any payment a Trial Member will have an introductory meeting with a representative at the Club. Applicants may be required to undertake a short ability test with one of our PGA Professionals if a past CONGU handicap certificate is not available.
- The Trial Membership is only open to new members, and can only be used once per person.
- All trial members agree to abide by the Club rules.
- Elton Furze reserves the right to cancel or suspend membership at any time if it is suspected that the membership is being abused, operated fraudulently or not abiding by the club rules.
- Each Trial member is entitled to 2 x ½ mid-week golf lessons with one of our PGA Golf Professionals.
- At the end of the Trial period, a Trial member has the option to become a member of the Club and the joining fee will be waived.